Xtreme Bowl IV

If you think all the action was in Houston this year, think again. No NFL match up can compare with the bone-crunching hits in store for players in this year's "Super Bowl" of wheelchair football. If you've never seen wheelchair football, then you haven't witnessed pain and aggression in their purest forms. Wheelchair football is one of the fastest growing sports in adaptive recreation, with teams all over the world practicing the wheelchair-modified version of American football. This year's tournament brings more than 200 athletes from across the United States to compete for $50,000+ prize money. Call Jonathan Foster at 229-4796 for information about dates, time and location.
